

Otho Day, Housing Director

Otho Day is the Housing Director for the Transitional Housing Programs in the Youth Development Services Division. The Housing Program consists of various programs including Transitional Housing Program (THP) for Homeless Young People, the Transitional Housing Placement Program (THPP), the Transitional Housing Program Plus and the Homeless Prevention Initiative program.

Mr. Day has worked in various DCFS programs throughout his twenty year career with the Department of Children and Family Services. For example, he has worked as a Children's Social Worker in Family Maintenance/Reunification, a supervisor in Transitional Housing, a Program Manager for the Family Preservation Program and as an executive team member for two Deputy Directors. Throughout his career he has provided outstanding service to both the staff and clients. His strongest attribute is that he is indeed a team player.

Mr. Day earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology/Anthropology at Tougaloo College in Mississippi and a Master's Degree in Education at Jackson State University also in Mississippi.
