Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated Omicron Rho Zeta Chapter Five Pearl Academic Scholarship

History of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was founded at Howard University on January 16, 1920 by five dynamic women: Arizona Cleaver, Fannie Pettie, Pearl Neal, Myrtle Tyler, and Viola Tyler. The women sought to form a sisterhood that would answer the call and work to meet the needs of an ever-changing society. The women, our Five Pearls, founded the organization based upon the precepts of Scholarship, Service, Sisterly Love, and Finer Womanhood, and the notion that collegiate life, sorority socializing, and popularity should not outweigh the true purpose of these organizations: to strive to increase the standard and quality of life for those in her community.

The founders saw the need for a more inclusive sisterhood, one who welcomed all types of women irrespective of color or creed. As long as a woman maintained high academic and moral standards, she would be considered worthy to join the organization.

91 years later, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated has grown into an international organization, comprised of women in all fields of study. With over 125,000 members worldwide, Zetas are doctors, lawyers, social workers, teachers, and scientists.

The Inglewood Graduate Chapter of Omicron Rho Zeta was chartered in 1993 for the purpose of promoting high ideals and scholastic achievement, encouraging literary, scientific and social advancement, cultural enrichment, and civic responsibility. It is in the spirit of our founders that we offer this scholarship, and with great happiness that we continue the work of our beloved organization by supporting our future leaders on their quest for education.
