

Hire an Intern!

Our intern program is offered at no cost to businesses, non-profits and government entities!

Internship Program

We provide first-time work experience opportunities to youth and young adults, ages 14-24, at various businesses, city governments, and community based organizations. Youth go through 20 hours of personal enrichment training and later are placed at employers to work an average of 100 hours.

- ✓ Interns may work for non-profits or government entities in any capacity and will be paid by the SBWIB.
- ✓ Interns are available to private business in the fields of:
 - Advanced Manufacturing,
 - Engineering and
 - Media Arts industry sectors.
